

A typical deployment of Retail Management System in a two-store scenario - one store with multiple lanes. A local area network(LAN) connects Store Operations installations across checkout lanes or POS stations within the store, and an Internet connection connects the stores to a head office running Headquarters

Note : Each deployment differs for each store. The above deployment scenarios are for illustration purpose only.